ROOSEVELT AND WILSON WINNERS

was in New Jersey speaks for itself," said Col. Roosevelt today. "I don't see that Jersey has left much for me to say."

The colonel was greatly elated at the outcome of the primaries. He said that after the Ohio vote he asserted the contest for the presidential nomination had been settled, so that the result in New Jersey, in his opinion, did not alter the situation.

The colonel was asked whether he would now begin to make plans for the fall campaign, since he felt confident of obtaining the nomination.

"In the course of a long period as a hunter," he said, "I have learned never to divide the bear skin until the bear is dead."

Wilson Happy.—Governor Woodrow Wilson said today regarding the New Jersey primary election: "I never doubted the result, but I am glad the Democrats of the state should have stood by me so generously and with so unmistakable verdict."

"The approval makes me very happy," because it is their judgment of the new regime in our politics in New Jersey and means that the new order is to be sustained with steadfastness and enthusiasm.

Taft With Confidence.—Washington, D. C., May 29.—President Taft's belief that he has enough delegates pledged and instructed for him to control the national convention was not shaken by the victory of colonel Roosevelt in the New Jersey primaries.

White house officials made no official statement, but Taft leaders who saw the president today would not permit from the press his own figures made public in several of his New Jersey speeches, which he said gave him 30 more than necessary to nominate.

Fight About To Close.—So far as direct appeal to the voters of the country is concerned, Col. Roosevelt's victory in New Jersey has brought to a close the unprecedentedly bitter fight in which Mr. Roosevelt, president-elect of New Jersey, and Mr. Taft, president-elect of La Follette, have been almost constantly engaged the last three months.

Senator La Follette will speak in South Dakota before the campaign in that state and the state conventions of Arizona and Ohio will be engaged the personal activity of any of the candidates.

Roosevelt Won In All But One State.—Concern over the outcome of the Jersey kept the national headquarters of the candidates in Washington open until an early hour today.

In practically all states where direct primaries were held for the election of national candidates, with the exception of Massachusetts, Col. Roosevelt won pronounced victories over president Taft. This fact has been in each case advanced by his campaign managers as convincing evidence of the certainty of his nomination and election.

Senator Dixon, campaign manager for Col. Roosevelt, returned to Washington from New York today and made the prediction that colonel Roosevelt would have more than 600 delegates of the first ballot at the Chicago convention exclusive of contested delegates.

Including in this number, he said, would be more than 30 from New York.

McKinley Says Taft Has 574.—President Taft's manager, congressman W. B. McKinley of Ohio, asserted that the president's actual strength at present was 574 delegates, exclusive of the delegates at large in Ohio, or Texas. He was emphatic in his prediction of a nomination for the president on the first ballot.

The Washington headquarters of all the Republican candidates will close this week and managers and their assistants will establish themselves in Chicago Monday for the opening of the battle before the national convention. The Taft attorneys, former senator Dick of Ohio, and C. B. Egan of Washington, have completed their defense of all the cases where the Roosevelt forces are contesting delegates. It is understood that the evidence will be filed with secretary Ward in Chicago before tonight.

Will Fight For Root.—The attitude of the Taft managers here indicates that they will lend their full support to chairman Harry S. New in the effort to seat senator Root as temporary chairman of the convention. It is understood that the Taft forces were not advised of the selection of senator Root until the latter had accepted Mr. New's invitation, but have selected what they believe to be an opportunity to ward together New York's delegates, and other delegations that will support the national committee in this issue.

Senator Dixon, declared that governor Bradley, of Missouri, would be the Roosevelt choice for temporary chairman of the convention.

"That is, of course, subject to change if conditions change," said the senator. "I believe, however, that governor Bradley's name will be proposed for the place and that William Pendergast, of New York, despite recent illness, will make the speech."

COBB ROASTS EL PASO RING METHODS BEFORE STATE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

tion and was not entitled to be heard. Hudspeth answered that he held proxies from two counties.

Ball moved that Cobb be given the privilege of addressing the convention and this was granted, whereupon Cobb proceeded to whomp it up. He said that the gentlemen who had preceded him (Love) in saying that the Kelly-Hudspeth committeemen were not all Wilson men, had told half the truth; he should have added that they were the tools of Hudspeth. Cobb declared that he was the original Wilson man from the west of the Pecos and all the delegates with him, he said, were true blue Wilson supporters.

Stem Roller Methods.—The El Paso ring gang, headed by Claude Hudspeth and the son of Gov. Colquitt has attempted here to unseat the Wilson delegates, who had been elected from El Paso.

"That is what was done in El Paso," the Wilson men whooped. "This contest is but a small part of the greater contest from El Paso county. The Harman delegation from that county was elected by the old machine that has been discredited all over this state (Applause); the old gang has died harder in El Paso than anywhere else in Texas."

"Why have they brought the gladiator of the Texas senate here? (Laughter and cheers.)"

Negatives in the Primaries.—I want to ask you delegates from Smith and Hunt counties if they ever ran negroes in to vote in your primaries. That is what was done in El Paso. I want the decision of this convention to be made so plain that no man ever will have the temerity to repeat our people by voting negroes in a Democratic primary.

"There are 1500 voters in my county who are automatically voted by machinery for statehouse officers, although they go to the polls to vote for a single local officer and know nothing whatever about state officers."

"Corrupt Politics at Home."—He declared that if the delegation which he opposed were seated, they would go home and do the next election with enough corrupt votes to kill every vote in this convention. He said that he was ambitious to go to the Baltimore convention, and his congressional district had already chosen him as a delegate, but he would rather sacrifice his honor than lose the opportunity to redeem El Paso from corrupt politics.

Hudspeth Replies.—Senator Hudspeth came forward to speak. There was much noise, but the chairman succeeded in getting a motion through to give Hudspeth the floor, whereupon "the cowboy senator" went after Cobb very sharply.

Hudspeth's Reply.—Hudspeth was forced most of the time to get words in edgewise, as the Wilson men incessantly whooped him. "You are not going to take me off the floor, boy," he said. "I am a pretty tough hombre myself. Run your steam roller over me; I like it. I have helped other steam rollers in the past and I am here to do so again."

He declared that every man of the list for which he spoke was a Wilson man.

A voice: "Are you?"

"No," shouted Hudspeth, "but I am a Harman man and will be a Democratic man 'Nubbin' is forgotten. He says the committeemen on one list are my tools. I want to tell you that they are honorable men and good Democrats."

Corrupt Republican Rule.—I have fought the battles of Democracy and voted the ticket ever since I was 18 years old. I am old, and the crowd whooped, "and yet Nubbin" says that I am the head of a corrupt organization. That organization, I want to tell you was formed for the purpose of snatching El Paso from corrupt Republican rule.

"Mr. Ball, I call upon you to be fair. The committeemen I stand for were chosen by a majority of the district. I am fair. I am for Harman, but they are all Wilson men. If you seat Cobb's
